F. GOOD CAUSE FOR NOT PARTICIPATING - E&T PARTICIPANTS

WAC 388-444-0050 Good cause for failure to register for work or for not participating in the FS E&T program.

- (1) A nonexempt client may have good cause for refusing or failing to register for work or to participate in the FS E&T program.
- (2) Good cause reasons include, but are not limited to:
 - (a) Illness of the client;
 - (b) Illness of another household member requiring the help of the client;
 - (c) A household emergency;
 - (d) The unavailability of transportation; or
 - (e) Lack of adequate dependent care for children six through twelve years of age.
- (3) A client who is determined by the department to lack good cause for failing or refusing to participate in FS E&T is disqualified and is not eligible to receive food assistance.

WORKER RESPONSIBILITIES

When you are informed that a non-exempt food assistance client has not complied with employment and training participation requirements:

For E&T Participants

- 1. Begin the good cause process no later than 10 calendar days from the date you are notified on noncompliance, by sending a letter to the client. The letter must include:
 - a. A description of the non-compliance; and
 - b. The date by which the client must contact the worker to provide good cause for non-compliance. (This date should not exceed 10 calendar days from the date the notice is sent.)

Note: If the client does not respond within 10 calendar days, determine that good cause does not exist. Refer to step 3. below.

- 2. Determine good cause for clients not participating with the FS E&T program.
- 3. When good cause does not exist the client must be disqualified. See Section G, Disqualification.
- 4. Inform clients disqualified for failure to participate with the FS E&T program how they may regain eligibility for food assistance.
- 5. Volunteers who fail to participate are not disqualified.

For ABAWDs

- 1. A non-participating ABAWD uses a month of the 3 month eligibility. There is no Good Cause determination.
- 2. Record non-qualifying work months as described in Section E, ABAWDs.
